Text:

Yacine: Excuse me, sir. Could you help me for a moment, please?

Passer-by: Sure, young man. What's the problem? You look a bit worried.

Yacine: I'm looking for the Grand Mosque, but I think I'm lost. I'm not familiar with this neighborhood.

Passer-by: Don't worry, it's not too far, but you must follow the directions carefully.

Yacine: Thank you! I really need to get there before the prayer starts.

Passer-by: Alright. Walk straight along Unity Avenue until you reach a large roundabout. Don't turn left; instead, take the second turning on the right. Go past the public library and continue walking. After that, cross the bridge and you'll see a small park. The mosque is opposite the park and next to the cultural center. You will easily recognize it because it has a tall minaret.

Yacine: That sounds a bit complicated. I hope I won't get confused.

Passer-by: Just stay calm and pay attention. You'll be fine.

Yacine: Thank you very much, sir. You've really helped me!

Passer-by: You're most welcome. May you arrive safely and on time. Have a blessed day!
