The text:

This morning, I go with my family to the supermarket to buy our needs. My father takes two heads of cabbage, a bunch of onions, a cluster of bananas, three slices of Swiss cheese, two cartons of apple juice, three tins of tuna, two cans of soda, a bag granulated sugar and a dozen of eggs.

My mother takes a chicken, two kilos of meat, some chicken breasts and a bottle of olive oil. My sister takes a packet of chips and two packets of chewing gum. And I take only a packet of biscuits.
